THE LIGHT OF TRUTH

Nothing can happen to you without it happening to God since "I —the real interior, spiritual Man—and my Father are one." Never let us forget that only in the degree that we realize this oneness can we maintain our spiritual integrity. As long as it can be made to appear that there is a you here and a God somewhere, just that long can disagreements, inharmonies and discords appear in your experience. No. The sun and the sunbeams that come to us are just one, and that one is the sun itself. Sunbeam is just the sun's way of appearing to us. So you and I (interiorly born of the Spirit), as individual beings, are just God, just God appearing in this form—in your form and my form.

There is nothing more important than this to learn. There is nothing more important than this to know. It is the secret of all the ages. It is the secret of all the ancient religions. It is the foundation of all the modern religions. No religion would be religion, no truth would be truth, if it did not reveal that there is not an infinite God and something else. The infinitude of God includes all being. We can no more escape from God, therefore, we can no more escape from our good than the warmth and the light can escape from a sunbeam. Warmth and light are constituent elements of the sunbeam; life and truth and love and harmony and peace and joy and dominion are constituent parts of our being. Eternality and immortality are constituent elements of our being, and we can no more be deserted by eternality and immortality than God could be bereft of Itself.

Let us know this. Let us be sure of this too: that we are that center of Consciousness through which the infinite good of God is pouring Itself into this world. I would like you to think of this sometimes: all of the Godhead, all that God is, is pouring Itself through individual me to you. All of that which we call truth, all of that which we call Life Eternal, all of that which we call Love, all of that which we call Spirit, is manifesting and expressing Itself as my individual being, and it is pouring Itself through to you.

Why, just think how wonderful this is when you realize that all that God is and all that God has is pouring Itself through individual you to me. This is the beauty of this relationship—that you are that point of God Consciousness through which God is pouring Itself through to the world. If that is true, everyone in this world is that point of God-consciousness through which God is pouring Itself through to you. Think what that means in our relationship to the world. Think what that means in the infinity of Good which at this moment is pouring Itself through to you. Why, if you realized that the infinity of God is pouring Itself through everyone to individual you, think what you would be receiving. It is true, "Ye are the light of the world." Remember: "Ye are the light of the world. ."

"God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all," and "Ye are the light of the world." Therefore you must be that God-light, and that God-light that is pouring through you is pouring Itself through you to me and to all others. All that is in and of God is pouring Itself through me to you. Doesn't that make us all one in Christ Jesus? Doesn't that make us all one in Truth? Doesn't that make us joint heirs with Christ in God to all the heavenly riches? Doesn't that make us all friends? Doesn't that make us all fellow citizens of the household of God? Yes, it does, according to scripture, only we must make the acknowledgment, we must make the recognition, we must call each other friend. When I say "each other," you know that I mean the each other that appears to the world as friends and as enemies. Nevertheless, friend or enemy, each is the light of the world unto the other. You see, when we recognize our oneness with God, we automatically find our oneness with each other. When we find our oneness with God, we find our oneness with every bit of good that belongs to our fellow man, to our unfoldment, to our expression. "I will not leave you comfortless." I will send you the Spirit of Truth, the divine Comforter. This I in the midst of you, as you relax, will reveal to you the full truth of being, with or without meditation.

A Jesus, a John, a Paul will come into your experience to carry the message of truth to you, but even when these leave the scene you will not be left without the Holy Ghost, or divine Comforter, since the function of the human teacher is to open your consciousness to the receptivity of truth, so that forever after you may receive truth direct.

In the end, all shall be taught of God, all, everyone shall be taught of God. The human teacher is just the "Suffer it to be so now," an avenue, a vehicle for God. The teacher has received the Light perhaps just a moment before you, and therefore shares with you that Light which you immediately begin to share with your neighbor and friend.

"Ye are the light of the world." As you realize "Why I am the light of the world, and not because of any virtue in and of myself, but because the entire light of God is pouring Itself through my consciousness to the world." You then consciously become the light in your community, in your home; and the moment that Light is struck in you by your recognition of it in your neighbor, in your relative, in your friend—wherever there is receptive thought—you light the light in them. That makes you a lamplighter. That is what we all are, lamplighters.
